*Offices Open during Legislative Session Only

The Legislative Information Office is critical to the public process in Alaska. In a large and diverse state, the LIO provides a connection between Alaska constituents and the members of the Alaska State Legislature, allowing all those who wish to participate in the discussion to be heard. "

~ Rep. Paul Seaton

Teleconferencing & Public Hearing Protocol

A TELECONFERENCE IS AN EXTENSION OF THE FORMAL COMMITTEE PROCESS.

The LIO is responsible for ensuring that the meeting proceeds according to the Chair's wishes.

PLEASE ADHERE TO THE FOLLOWING RULES FOR PUBLIC TESTIMONY:

- You must sign in if you wish to testify.
- Before speaking, you must be recognized by the chair.
- State your name and if applicable, who you represent, at the beginning of your testimony.
- Address only the issue(s) before the committee.
- Be respectful of the committee & those in attendance at the hearing (both locally & at other teleconference sites)
- Indicate when you have concluded your testimony.

"I lived in several states before moving to Alaska in 1989. I have never known or heard of a state which does such a good job at including citizens in the process of government, thanks to our system of Legislative Information Offices. Here in Homer, we are particularly fortunate to enjoy the services of staff as dedicated, knowledgeable, helpful and friendly as I could possibly imagine."

~Pamela Brodie, LIO user

Legislative Information Offices Can Help You:

- Effectively navigate and use the Alaska State Legislature website
- Watch & Testify at hearings
- Track bills
- Understand how Alaska's government works
- Be proactive and informed
- Register to Vote
- Apply for the Alaska Permanent Fund Dividend

Printed copies of the following publications are available from the LIO
